Good Ship Pontia Carefully Guarded; Cargo Searched For Smuggled Arms.

DUBLIN IS MYSTIFIED

Government And Leaders Of Sinn Fein Deny Knowing "President's" Location

DUBLIN. Jan. 1 .- The American steamer Pontia, which arrived here Friday from New York and which was immediately searched by the military, was still under a strong guard of armed soldiers today. The members of the crew of the vessel remained abourd but admission to the ship was refused to all other per-

This morning the captain of the Pontia was permitted to go ashore or business connected with the ship but when he returned the sentry on duty refused to permit him to pass. The captain sent a written request to the officer of the guard who allowed him to go aboard the Pontia again. The cargo of the Pontia is being overhauled to see if the vessel has been used for gun running.

The dock workers have declined to unload the Pontia while soldiers re main on board. If the troops leave the steamer the dockers will discharge the cargo, which the military can then search ashore,

The crew has been carefully exam-Mrs. De Valera has declined to be interviewed.

Arrival Denied DUBLIN, Jan. L.-Leading sinn Fein ers and government officials altike deny knowledge of arrival here of cutor has rejected the request of the Eamonn de Valera. They assert that United States authorities for the ex he did not arrive on board the tradition of Vincenzo Pataccio, who steamer Pontia and telephonic inquiry at the Irish ports failed to reyeal that the "president of the Irish shooting and killing Josephine Genrepublic" has made his entry into tile, and Lena Spenelli, in New York. Ireland. Some Sein Feiners credit on the night of March 7, 1919. The retary to de Valera in the United prosecutor held that since the crime States that de Valera has landed on with which Pataccio is charged is to arrest de Valera on the old charge against him, that of having escaled from jail, as he could be taken into custody under the Restoration of Grder in Ireland act.

The ground for the detention of of Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein organization and Professor John MacNeil, president of the Sinn Fein volunteers, is the desire of the government of ascertain the responsibility for the alleged employment of republican funds in ambuscades and ! other operations involving the loss of the lives of troops, and it is said, this desire might include de Valera as the alleged source of the funds.

The expectation is, that if de Valera is in Dublin, he first will consult his intimates and then make known his presence and await arrest. Here's Another Report
